Kimball Union academy is said to have one of the strongest preparatory school basketball teams in New Hampshire, and the Goddard team is as yet undefeated. Don't miss the game between these two strong teams Monday night.

The Altruists and their friends were very pleasantly entertained last evening at the home of Mrs. A. B. Averill, 30 Averill street. Delightful games made the evening pass all too quickly. Light refreshments were served. The guests departed with the memory of another delightful social evening and much gratitude to the hostess for her kind hospitality.

A party of 76 young people of the Barre and Philanthropic classes and the choir of the Baptist church went to Devoy park last night and held a maple sugar party, the trip there and back being in special electric car. Games, songs, plays and refreshments of maple sugar, doughnuts, pickles, etc., were served, the party returning to this city shortly after ten o'clock. The coldness of the temperature somewhat marred the enjoyment of the occasion.

In spite of the warning of the management of the Fenberg stock company that Friday night's performance, "The Lamb and the Brute" would be a gruesome spectacle and that nervous people better keep away, there was naturally a big turnout of people, who wanted their nerves tested. They were tested. The piece is one grand succession of thrills, with a murder every quarter of an hour, and the victims hurled over precipices and stowed away in any little cranny that came convenient. There were several cold chills in the audience, but not a woman needed the ambulance.

Realizing the fact that the winter will soon be a thing of the past, and that many a merchant will find his shelves filled with winter goods which should have been disposed of in due season, and to prevent such a serious calamity A.
